

MAGAZINE EXCHANGE:

Are your magazines piling up? We missed our usual exchange in June. The next one will be in early September so watch for the announcement! It's a great way to recycle and get new reading material, and even save the magazines you collect for the next exchange! Also, don't forget about our book sale late in the fall. All books are welcome (except encyclopaedias) and eagerly browsed through during the event! If you cannot store your boxes of books until November, please give us a call and drop them off at our house.

You can even leave the boxes on our front doorstep as we are used to books being dropped off there!!

Our 2019 Vacation Bible School, SCRIPTURE SLEUTHS, has come to a successful end! 37 children joined us here to learn about seeking God, and God's will, and acting with God in mind! We were inquisitive, active, musical, playful and prayerful together, and it was a great privilege to build relationships and share the love of God with each little scripture sleuth! Please check out the display case in the narthex, the bulletin boards in the old basement and upper hall, or our daily Facebook updates from this week, to see our week in retrospect!

We were INCREDIBLY blessed by the support of so many, without whom we could not have offered such rich programming. A huge thanks goes out to: Irene Hill and Marge Pennington – for every tasty thing we ate! Deirdre Brown – master of music! Ellen Sware, Deborah Hoekstra, Heather Langdale, Sarah and Miriam Waldie, Rebecca Carle, Joanne Wong, Kenny McKenney– crafters and activity leaders extraordinaire!

The friends and families of each budding sleuth, and all of our encouragers here at St. Albert United Church – for your support in word, in prayer and in deed.

With deepest appreciation,
Amy Bautista, and the participants of Scripture Sleuths 2019
