Death Café – End of Life

The sessions will start with a Death Café. A Death Café is a scheduled non-profit get-together for the purpose of talking about death over food and drink, usually tea and cake. The goal of these non-profit groups is to educate and help other become more familiar with the end of life.

A Death Café is a group directed discussion of death with no agenda, objectives or themes. It is a discussion group rather than a grief support or counselling session.

For more detailed information, please take a brochure from the Welcome table on Sunday or visit the church office during the week.

When: March 18, 2020

Where: Friendship Hall

Time: 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Exploring a Couple of End of Life Options:

- Palliative care/hospice care
- Medical assistance in dying

Presenters:

- Brad Peter, Director of the National Dying with Dignity Canada organization.
- Serena – sharing a personal story
