Reserves

Reserves were regarded for much of the 19th century as places for Indians to be confined until they became “civilized.” Once they had learned “proper habits” of industry and thrift, they could then be released (enfranchised, in the language of Indian legislation from this period) into the general society as full citizens with equal rights and responsibilities, taking with them a proportional share of reserve assets.

An information evening hosted by Sacred Art of Living to introduce you to Healing the Healers: The Art of Living and Dying, a four-part internationally acclaimed series of experiential workshops to explore the four essential elements of emotional-spiritual wellbeing: Meaning, Forgiveness, Relatedness and Hope.

This virtual event is hosted by the Northern Spirit Regional Council and is offered to all people who are interested, both Ministry Personnel and Laypersons. The intention of the program is to enhance people's ability to go deeper in conversation with others of their Communities of Faith.

The first workshop will be held August 12-13. There is no charge for the information evening, and costs of the workshop series will be reduced, based on the levels of participation. August 12-13 will be free and count towards the completion of the first of the four modules. Cost for each of the 3 remaining modules is either $200/module or $150/module depending on the number of participants.

Modules are usually spaced 6 months apart. In the in-between time Circles of Trust are set up for participants to meet monthly either virtually or in-person.

FUN-RAISER SEPTEMBER 10, 2022

Now that you all know what is coming on September 10, 2022 I sure hope you are all ready to have a night of fun.

I realize some of you have already seen his performance elsewhere and also that this might not be everyone's "cup of tea" (to coin a British phrase) BUT just remember another fun night out is always a good thing! ELVIS is coming to the Church with Buddy Holly and Johnny Cash.....what more fun can you ask for, Sofiya our charming young singer will be here too!

Mark your schedules and, like me, look forward to a fun night. We all need some fun.
