ENFRANCHISEMENT

1876 to 1985 For non-Indigenous peoples, “enfranchisement” is a positive term and may be viewed as victory over exclusion, the recognition of full rights of citizenship, including the right to vote.

The ultimate purpose of enfranchisement of status Indians was to reduce the number of Indians the govt. was financially responsible for and to get rid of the Indian problem. It needs to be recognized that “status Indians” were not considered “people” according to Canadian laws and did not become “people” until the Indian Act was revised in 1951. Prior to 1951, the Indian Act defined a “person” as an individual other than an Indian. Source: “21 Things You May Not Know About The Indian Act” by Bob Joseph

FUN-RAISER SEPTEMBER 10, 2022

Now that you all know what is coming on September 10, 2022, I sure hope you are all ready to have a night of fun.

I realize some of you have already seen his performance elsewhere and also that this might not be everyone's "cup of tea" (to coin a British phrase) BUT just remember another fun night out is always a good thing! ELVIS is coming to the Church with Buddy Holly and Johnny Cash.....what more fun can you ask for, Sofiya our charming young singer will be here too!

Mark your schedules and, like me, look forward to a fun night. We all need some fun.
