CHRISTMAS CHOIR – 2022

Love to sing Christmas music? Come and join St. Albert United Church's Christmas choir. There will be five Thursday night rehearsals starting Nov. 10 at 7 pm leading to our Lessons and Carols service on Sunday, December 11 at 10 am. Previous choir experience is helpful but not necessary. Everyone is welcome!

If you are interested, please contact Margaret Ward-Jack at wardjack@shaw.ca. See you soon!

SAUC WEBSITE UPDATE:

The section under Mission and Service, formerly entitled 'Indigenous Outreach', has been renamed 'Living Into Right Relations.' It now contains information as to how the "status" of an Indian is determined by the Indian Act. It is the plan of LIRR to change the article every 4-6 weeks. Requests for other info on reconciliation are welcome and may be directed to Kay Douglas through the church office or put in mailbox 26.

Semi-Annual General Meeting Sunday November 20th, 2022 SAUC Sanctuary – Noon

Broadview Discussion Group

Several times a year, a number of interested people meet on a Wednesday morning to discuss articles in a recent Broadview magazine. The December issue has arrived, and the discussion has been tentatively set for November 16 at 10:30 am in the Lounge. If you would like to be placed on the contact list to receive further information about this discussion, please let Marian know at mroberg@telusplanet.net or at 780 459 4764.

Set your clocks
BACK
one hour before going to bed tonight.

MY NAME IS SEEPEETZA

This is a complex narrative that combines fact and fiction interweaving the life of Seepeetza, whose English name is Martha Stone (as the nuns called her) and the author Shirley Sterling. They both share the same Indian name "Seepeetza". The adult Sterling, a professor of education, used the name Seepeetza (given to her by her father) with students and colleagues at the university. Martha Stone attended the fictional Kalamak Indian R.S. Shirley Sterling attended the Kamloops R.S.
